FEATURED WINERY

YALUMBA

Barossa Valley, South Australia

THE STORY

The Yalumba story started with Samuel Smith venturing across the seas from England to Angaston in the Barossa Valley in 1849.

Yalumba, which name is taken from an Aboriginal word that means 'all the country around', is acknowledged as Australia's oldest family-owned winery with over 165 years of history.

The winery has seen enormous growth through five different generations and managed to stay on top of the Australian wine market thanks to innovation in winemaking, marketing and management strategies, with its production diversifying from fortified ports and sherries to dry wines.

CHAMPAGNE

Champagne, France

THE BEAUTIFUL ACCIDENT

History states the discovery of Champagne was indeed a result of a winemaking mistake. While the vigneron from the region were trying to challenge the most prestigious nearby wine producers in Burgundy, France, the cold winters tended to interrupt the fermentation process, leaving undigested sugars and yeasts in wine bottles to form carbon dioxide - then explode.

Many years after this coincidental mistake, we now celebrate the best expression of sparkling wine in the world. Champagne is undoubtedly one of our lists most desirable sections!

WHITE BURGUNDY

Cote de Beaune, Burgundy, France

THE REGION

The Cote de Beaune is the southern district of the Cote d'Or wine region and it is the homeland of some, if not the best, white wines produced in the world. Chardonnay is indeed the queen grape variety, although in smaller quantities, Aligote, an indigenous grape of the area, can be found.

From the top of Chablis to the bottom of Macon, treat yourself with one or more of these delicious drops.

YARRA YERING

Yarra Valley, Victoria

THE STORY

One of Australia's most iconic wine producers, Yarra Yering is from the Yarra Valley in Victoria. Established in 1969 by Dr Bailey Carrodus it was the 1973 vintage that saw production of the first vintage of Dry Red Wine No. 1 and Dry Red Wine No. 2, which quickly gained an international reputation for quality and individuality and paved the way for other Yarra Valley and Australian wineries. The winemaking is now in the hands of Sarah Crowe one of Australia's most awarded and respected winemakers with the wines continuing to grow from strength to strength.
